TUESDAY MORNING, NOV. 13, 1860

When and Where the Electors Vate. At the general election on Tuesday last, the People of the United States, as our readers know, did not vote directly for President and Vice-President of the United States --They only chose, in each State, in such manper as the laws of such State prescribed, a number of Ecectons, equal to the aggregate representation of the State in the two Houses of Congress. Upon the Electors so chosen the Constitution of the United States devolves the duty of selecting a President and Vice President. The original theory of the Constitution was, that these electors would exercise their own judgment and discretion in the selection of the Chief Magistrate. But practically the electors merely record the choice of their respective constituencies. The Revised Statutes of Wisconsin re quire of the Secretary of State, State Treasurer and Attorney General that they meet togather in the office of the Secretary of State on the Tuesday next after the fourth Monday of November, or sooner if official returns shall have been received from all the counties-and proceed to canvass the vote. It the returns are not all in by the day named. the Board may adjourn from day to day for three days, but not longer. Having canvassed the votes, the Szcretary of State is required to certify to each of the electors assertained to be chosen, the fact of his election.

On the first Wednesday in December next after their election, the electors are required to meet at the Capitol of this State, at the hong of 12 o'clock; fill any vacancies that may exist in their body; and then "proceed to perform the duties required of such electors by the Constitution and Laws of the United States." These are, to vote by ballot, separately, for a President and a Vice-President of the United States, and to transmit certified lists of the result to the President of the United States and President of the Senate at the Federal Capital. The electors receive $2.50, per day while attending at Madison in ino discharge of their duties, and ten cents per mile for every mile travelled in going to raries asserted very positively at the time, that the vote of Wisconsin would ke rejected in consequence of the alleged illegality. But as it did not vary the result of the Presidential election, no exception was taken to the vote and it was received and counted with the rest. As Rapublicans, this year, are all "Wide Awake," wetake it for granted, that our Lincoln Electors will not be "caught napping" as their Farmont predecessors were, but will be on hand at Madison before noon on the first Wednesday in December.

The Irrepressible Conflict.

The excitement which the election of Lincoln has produced in the Southern States, does not supprise us, we expected it, and apprehent that it will use subside until they solate satisfactory guarantees of safety and protection in the U nion, from the party which is about to assume the administration of the government, it now devolves on those and of the overside the disturbance to quell it.—News, of Sunday.

ticipates, shall arrive, it will be Mr. Bu-CHANAN's official duty "to quell it." No one can doubt, from his past record, that he will distinguish himself in the performance of this, as of his other duties. The News, still agitated about the "irre-

Bressible conflict," continues :

The South is in surreat; no Southern State will remain in this Union, it slaveholding is to be regarded in reafter, as a disqualification for holding onice under the Federal Government.

Well, the North is just as much "in carnest' as the Eonth -- as witness the overwhelming Republican majorities of Tuesday last. But the North does not propose, and trust, will live to see many more "national elections." Indeed in the very same number of the paper containing the above, we observe a confident prediction that Mr. DOUGLAS "will be elected President in 1864." That is postponing "the worst" for four years at least. It is the Patriot's "sober second thought." The South will experience a similar change after they have relieved their excited feelings by blowing of stam awhile. And by "the South" we do fair trial, and at least hear before we strike.

Any incumbent of that office ever did. More than that, he will go to Washington disposed the not only to conciliate, but to conciliate, but to chart he has no war to wege against it, sand is anxious to have pourted. That he has no war to wege against it, sand is anxious to have pourt not mean the masses of the psople, but the political hot-heads and extremists who are raising all this row for their own selfish purposes. They will "aubside" very shortly giter "Old Abe" enters the White House.

Satisfactory from Missesota! The Saint Paul Pioneer and Democrat, he leading Douglas organ in Minnesota, in its issue of the 9th instant, gives returns from all the States, as far as heard from, and makes report for Minnesota, as follows:

"As to Minnesota, it is probable Lincoln has a majority of from 8 to 10,000. In the Legislature, both branches will be so overwhelmingly Republican, that it will save itime, and be practically correct, to call it will save itime, and be practically correct, to call it oversent election. All day yest-aday the inunanimous. There will not be Democracy enough in the body for seed,

And so the North speaks against the ultra ism of the South."

CREDIT TO WHOM CREDIT IS DUR.—We have no doubt the overwhelming triumph of the Republicars in Danc county is to be sectibed to the dissipainations of the Patriot, among the Democrats, of Lincoln's Cooper Institute speech. We thought, at the time, it would do much good; and the result confirms our opinion—Let the Patriot be duly credited with its involuntary services.—Free Democrat.

The Patriot has done much to contribute to the victory, but we also claim a portion of the credit.—Bidde we publish Douglas' Milwaukse speech.—Madison Journal.

We think "honors are easy" between ou! Madison cotemporaries. Lincoln's speech in the Patriot converted many Democrats from the error of their ways; and Doculas' speech in the Journal confirmed every Republican in the true faith.

LET IT DE RECORDED.—The Republican gain in La' Crosse city is 221. The Republican says:

If the Republicans elsewhere can improve on these feures we shall be pleased to record the fact.

Maulison gains 225, beating La Crosse four. Let it be recorded.—Badison Mournet.

Good for both of you. But look at MIL-WAUKER! Republican gain since 1856, twenty-two hundred, and since 1859, fourteen hundred. Another year will "wipe out? what is left of a Democratic majority in this

The Secession War.

Our dispatches from the South to-day, seem to leave an oroom for doubt that the South mean something more than bluster. It would recent that they are determined this time to one, and any as little as possible. "Still waters run desp." We advise all to look out for the worst. Our only hope is that we may have a Fresident equal to the task. If not, our heart of the White House nationalizes, so to speak, the elected President, whatever may have seen his previous predilections. He is competed vision. We advise all "to look out for the best." Thore can be no reasons bls doubt that Mr. Lincoln will be found equal to the task. Our Pairiot friends, we trust, will live to see many more "national that, he will go to Washington disposed forest."

A bystander remarked that it would certainly be a "big thing." The Wide Awakes of the city will have a grand parade some day of this week or the next.

A Day's Work.

Day before yesterday a profound but un-clamorous excitement filled this country. A great question, which originated before thou-sands who have just voted upon it knew their right hands from their left, was upon depotism spread through the defaleation common and countenanced, the laws evaded or misinterpreted, and abuses and accounty defring opinion everywhere.

These and other outrages were seen and remembered, and the paople determined they should be punished, and the democracy expelled from power. This general purpose operated more than any other upon the eigenpose of self government, have stood up, and, with million-fold voice, decided the great principle of self government, have stood up, and, with million-fold voice, decided the great principle of self government, have stood up, and, with million-fold voice, decided the great principle of self government, have stood up, and, with million-fold voice, decided the great principle of self government and so shuken which in advance had so shuken was the South which proposed in the case of Edward Everett, nominated as Minister to England, to make anti-"slaveholding."
This question entered largely into our local contest, and was everywhere accepted. The weatern majorities speak as decisively, as offices, and to the quist pursuit of the various callings in which the wealth and those of the east, and the protective policy is again re-established as a part of the old oread. Economy in the conduct of the government, thomesteads for the settlers on the public domain, retrenchment and accounts to reject this unusual, and 'meconstitutional test.

Under the administration of Mr. Lincole, the South will enjoy all "the safety and protection" to which the Constitution and Laws of the country entitle them. Herefore, fore, they have had exclusive possession of the Federal Government. Hereafter, we propose that they shall have their full share and we ask and expect as much for the North.

MOTHERS! MOTHERS!

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRAnd By Son Sold by Henry Foss, Jr., and other argueration is the prescription of one of the superising could and half fuway. Celin's latter, kind and unasspecting, saddled a horse for his daughter to ride, and she left. As a matter of course, Danel was found, hiding behind a bush, or in the shadow of a big tree, waitting for his affailty, and when they met, the clothes, and celiar and Daniel all got on the horse together, and made a bee-line for Language. It is not to be supposed that all this billing pleasant and unpleasant, fungated the work of the lungs, and overcome on the state of the most brightness in thousands of cases.

MOTHERS! MOTHERS!

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYR
And his was to at the low in the two theorem, on the clief and the way opened a correspondence within his love. From writing love letters the transition to meeting by mondight alone is not a very great or difficult one. It is not to be supposed that all this billing and cooring was to no effect. A few weeks ago the matter culminated. Celia, all alone, up in her room, with thoughts pleasant and unpleasant, fungated on the college of visiting a neighbor, and sitting up with her will have a half the same and the college of visiting a neighbor, and sitting we will and unasspecting, saddled a horse for his daughter to ride, and she left. WINE BATHS IN PARIS-A PLEASANT ITEM FOR LOVERS OF CHAMPAGNE. — An American traveler in the streets of Parls, seeing the words, "Wine baths given here," exclaimed:

"Well, these Frenchman are luxurious people!" Then, with a true Yankee curicisty, and the feeling that he could afford whatever any one else did, walked in and demanded a "Wine bath."

Feeling wonderfully refreshed after it, and having to pay but five france, he asked, in some astonishment, how a wine bath could be afforded so cheaply? His sable attendent, who had been a slave in Virginia, and enjoyed a sly bit of humor, replied:

Ob, massa, we just pass it along into anudder room, where we give baths at four we place within the reach of all. We care not what may be the specific order of the disease. The cause, the fountain of the disease itself, is impureablood, and through the different channels of the lungs, stomach and the witationgens, JUDSON'S MOUN.

Stomach and the witationgens, JUDSON'S MOUN.

Then, of course, you throw it away,

C.A. a head. Den, massa, we let common people have it at one franc a piece."

"Then, of course, you throw it away," exolat med the traveler, who thought this was going even beyond Yankes profit.

"No, indeed, massa," was the indignant reply, accompanied by a profound bow; "no indeed, massa, we are not so 'stravgant as that comes to; we just bottle it up den, and send it to Merica for champagne!"

A TRUTONIC RIP VAN WINELE.-The A TRUTCHIC RIP VAN WINELE.—The Rochester Express easys that while the Tenth Ward Inappeters were in session, on Wednesday morning, completing their official labors, they were interrupted by the entrance of an honest looking German, who presented the Republican ballot, saying that he wanted to vote for "Ole Linkon." The Inappeters explained that he had come too late. "Nix." said he, "it ish not doe la-a-te. Die ish election. I mucht vote for der Old Abe. You mush take de dicket, I shay." As he declined to be convinced to the contrary the Eoard saw the necessity of humoring him. The honest patriot had the satisfaction of seeing his ballot thrust into the empty box, and then retired with the remark, box, and then retired with the remark, "Datish vun goot vost for de ole man vot sphlit de rails.
